

Post Placement Support

Catalyst Employment Service provides FREE support for you and your employer for at least the first 26 weeks of your employment.

The support provided by Catalyst can include:-

- Keeping in regular contact with you to provide support while you are in employment through visits, phone calls and emails
- Assist with organising any work related training you may require
- Provide work related clothing and other work related assistance to help you maintain employment (where negotiated with your Employment Consultant)
- Liaise with your employer where required to assist in resolving various work related issues
- Liaise with you about Centrelink related matters
- Provide Financial Support through a Wage Subsidy to your employer up to the value of $1500
- Organise the purchase of Workplace Modifications up to the value of $30,000 to assist you with your job

Every Catalyst client who obtains employment is required to complete a minimum 26 week Post Placement Support period.

At the successful completion of your Post Placement Support Period you can be exited from Catalyst or if you require ongoing assistance you will continue to receive support for an additional 26 weeks.

Please contact Catalyst today on 07 3807 5559 if you have any questions or queries about Post Placement Support.
